(WASHINGTON, DC) – On the heels of his trip to Afghanistan and Pakistan, Congressman Russ Carnahan (MO-3) will hold a press conference call to discuss reconstruction, security and anti-terrorism efforts and take questions from reporters. This weekend, Carnahan took part in a Foreign Affairs Committee trip where he and other members of the bipartisan delegation met with U.S. and allied officials.

“Our men and women in uniform are still hard at work in Iraq and Afghanistan, putting their lives on the line to help make America safer and more secure,” Russ Carnahan said. “We have to make sure that the reconstruction strategies we’re employing support success on the ground. It’s critical to the self-sufficiency of Afghanistan, the safety of our troops, and the security of the world.”

During the call, Carnahan will also discuss his next hearing as Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on International Organizations, Human Rights and Oversight.
